6:30 a.m. to 7:50 a.m. EST
Location: Grand C/D/E

Guest Speakers: Kirsten Ardleigh Chadwick & Anne MacMillan

KIRSTEN ARDLEIGH CHADWICK joined Fierce Government Relations in February of 2004 after serving President George W. Bush as a Special Assistant to the President for Legislative Affairs. During her tenure as a liaison to the U.S. House of Representatives, Kirsten focused on numerous issues including education, agriculture, tax and trade. In this capacity, she served as the primary point of contact for the President and senior White House staff to the House Republican leadership and the Agriculture, Education and the Workforce, Energy and Commerce, and Ways & Means committees for these issues. Prior to joining the Administration, Kirsten was a Principal at the law firm of O'Brien Calio, LLP. From April to August 2000, she was the Deputy Assistant Convention Manager for Public Liaison at the Republican National Convention.

ANNE MACMILLAN co-chairs Invariant's agriculture, food, and trade practice, leveraging nearly 25 years of experience across the federal government and private sector on behalf of industry leaders and trade associations. She helps clients navigate complex policy and regulatory challenges across a wide range of issue areas both on Capitol Hill and throughout the Biden-Harris Administration. Before coming to Invariant, Anne served as senior advisor and deputy chief of staff to U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) Secretary Tom Vilsack where she developed and implemented the agency's regulatory agenda and managed the Secretary's policy team.
